MODEL A TO THE RESCUE By Bob Kelley

It's Friday, 3:00 P.M., and I'm starting vacation. Cruising down the Newport Freeway in the fast land, when "pow", a blow out on my VW camper. So there I am stuck on the center divider, and of course, my spare has no air. I knew a freeway officer would be along shortly to get me off that race track. Fifteen minutes, 30 minutes, one hour, 1½ hours. Now I'm wondering who's going to put my daughter through college. When to my surprise, from Heaven came an "A" roadster pickup and pulled in behind me. (Something about pies written on the side.)

Out flies the owner of this little beauty. He says "I'll take your spare to get that air." I turn around and this "crazy man" is running across the Newport Freeway. After a few minutes waiting for a break in traffic, those agile feet carried him back across the freeway with tire and wheel in hand.

Who was that crazy man and his flying "A"?
